Never give up

My dear students,

Let me begin again with an incident

Once during sports day the teacher was standing at the finishing line. The students were racing to reach the finishing tape, in the 800 meters race. whole school was in cheer. The first four students ran till they reach the tape, the fifth student Riva saw the winners and slow down her steps and stopped her running. She was completely moving out ,so also the other girls. The teacher shouted loudly , "Don't give up. Come back! Finish the race ,you can. its not just winning !Learn to finish what you have begun !come back !finish the race". The girls returned and finished the race. "Well done, well done," the teacher said. "you have completed the tedious race you began. Give them a hand ." The other students cheered with all their might! The loosing spirit disappeared and the tired girls were encouraged and happy. My dear students always learn to finish what you have began. It is not winning that matters but the taking part .complete what you have begun .what you do in a race ,you will do in life. ready to face any challenges amidst many obstacles. Never give up! complete what you have started to do that will give you determination and a strong will power which is important in battles of life. It's not winning that matters, but taking part .feel the joy of participation; it does not matter if you win or lose.

Stay safe .

" Lord, hear our prayers "

The first week of Advent is based on the theme of hope. It represents the anticipation and expectation of the arrival of the Messiah, embodying the hope for salvation and the fulfillment of God's promises. Through a beautiful prayer service and skit, the first week of Advent was celebrated at Immaculate Conception with great enthusiasm. Sister Principal lit the first candle of hope. May it be upon us.

A Serene Recap of the Second Week of Advent Assembly

Reflections on the Post-Unit Test Parents-Teachers Meeting

In the spirit of collaboration and shared commitment to our students' growth, we recently convened for the Parents-Teachers Meeting following the unit test. This gathering served as a valuable opportunity to celebrate achievements, address challenges, and strengthen the partnership between home and school.

The discussions during the meeting were not only centered on grades but also on the holistic development of our students. We appreciate the active participation of parents in understanding the unique needs and aspirations of their children. It is through this understanding that we can tailor our educational approach to ensure each student reaches their full potential.

Cricketing Chronicles: "Triumph and Teamwork at the Inter-School Cricket Match"

In the spirit of sportsmanship and camaraderie, our school recently participated in an exhilarating Avinash Chandra Cricket Tournament, La Martinière Ground that brought together talent, teamwork, and a shared love for the game.

We came down to bat first and posted an impressive score of 181/6 in 20 overs, led by the stellar performance of Parth Singh Karki from class 11th, who displayed finesse with an unbeaten score of 51, steering our team to a formidable total. In a display of strategic prowess, our bowlers, led by the exceptional Aditya Dixit from 9th B, showcased remarkable skill, securing two crucial wickets and restricting the opposing team to a commendable all-out total of 142.

Parth Singh Karki rightfully earned the prestigious Man of the Match award, a testament to his outstanding contribution and exceptional performance that played a pivotal role in our team's triumph during the match.
