Our Ecological Mission

Let me throw some insight about our planet earth .

It's almost high time for us to save our planet earth which is our common home,". Today the earth is being threatened as never before. Nature is warning us :Allow me to live ;if you destroy me, I will turn against you. And I will ensure that you too are destroyed likewise!"By our greed ,indifference non-involvement silence, silence and carelessness, we have brought this tragedy upon ourselves. There are no lifeboats to save us ,if the earth becomes uninhabitable.

So my dear children let's take promise to save water, electricity, paper and trees in our little ways .Let us give up the use of disposable plastic bottles and bags as much as possible. Let's avoid throwing food remembering that someone is dying due hunger and thirst somewhere in the corner of the world.

Let's turn off the lights and taps when not in use. Let us use water sparingly and judiciously. Let us cultivate Herbal Gardens, and plant more trees .

With these responsible actions we can ensure a better future for the next generation.

Stay healthy.

Rights and Duties

India celebrated her 75th Republic Day this year. The Indian Constitution is undoubtedly one of the most defined and refined documents in the world. It's a masterful Constitution ingrained with a dedication towards all Indian citizens.

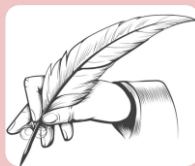

There are many features which makes it so reverent and one of a kind. The most prominent is Part Three which lists six Fundamental Rights granted to everyone without any discrimination or reservation.

But we need to ask ourselves if in enjoying these rights, we have forgotten our duties towards this great nation. The next question is whether we even know what our duties are? The Constitution shall be fulfilled once all people realize their duties in order to become faithful citizens.

To truly appreciate these rights, it is essential that we adhere and abide by the Fundamental Duties of Part IV A as well. A balance between rights and duties is important to ensure that we can be contributing members of the society.

This includes keeping our houses and streets clean, following traffic rules, respecting our culture and heritage, and adding to the positive value of India in every sphere. We should be proud of the Indian soil who has been a mother to us for ages. We should serve her to the best of our ability.

Whispers of loneliness

One's who care,
One's who play fair.
Are the one's who are lonely,
With no one to share..
One's who comfort,
One's who pretend
Don't have anything to confront,
They just need a mend, a friend.
One's who have a longing,
Some need a belonging
Maybe they are just searching?
For a bond quiet stringing...
Oh, the person was left forlorn,
All their trust and emotions torn.
Or was it just...
A melancholic deep thought?
But the soul has still, A beaming hope
Seeking solace trying to find a home
Their trust shattered yet,
In the depths of this melancholy,
a resilient spirit seeks love and harmony.
With each tear that falls like a rain drop,
In search of a friend binding souls.
To accompany that one on a journey,
From the bottom to the top..

JUST FOCUS

There is no one going to save you,
You have to be just Focus through

You yourself have to build your future,
Once you will have money no one will notice your nature,

If they see a loose character in you ,
Just wake up and show them what you can do,

Be silent and let them speak everything they want, Once you will be successful,
You will be happy to see their faces
shocked,

Work for cause, not for applause
Live life to express not to impress,

Now you have to move with aggression and, Use your mind as a weapon.

Best Friend

Best friends stick together till the end,
He is like a straight line that will never bend.

There is gold and diamond in mountains
And beautiful pearls in the sea,
Those treasures do not mean as much
As your friendship means to me.

One day I saw a glory,
That he is the Robin hood of my story.

There is no one like a best friend
To tell your troubles to,
Someone to open with, someone to take through.

Tejas Singh SA

All The Best

Dear friends, let my words be your guide
As you embark on your education ride
With motivation, your journey will be bright
And your dreams will take flight
In the classes of learning, don't be shy
Ask questions, seek knowledge and reach the sky
With every step, you'll grow and thrive
And your mind will be filled with wisdom and might.
